GOOD MOVE IN KENTUCKY

CLOSER RELATIONS WITH THE JOCKEY CLUB DESIRED BY RACING COMMISSION.

J. N. Camden Goes East Today to Confer with Mem bers of New York Governing Body for Establish ment of An Alliance in Interest of Turf.

Lexington, Ky., January 7.—Johnson N. Camden, the millionaire member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, who is likewise the master of Hartland Stud, the owner of the splendid Spring Valley Farm in Woodford County and the proprietor of an extensive stable of racers, will leave here tomorrow for New York to take up in a tentative way with the Jockey Club the question of the establishment of closer relations between the Kentucky State Racing Commission and the governing body of the turf in the east, with a view to unification of rules. Years ago there was an alliance between the Jockey Club and the governors of the turf in the west, but disregard of the forfeit list of the former on the part of the latter, together with other infractions of the agreement, caused the severance of those finer relations which mean so much for the general good of the sport of racing in this country. The movement for re-establishment of those relations about to be launched by Mr. Camden is original with him and it has met with the entire approval of his associates on the state racing commission and with the horsemen of Kentucky generally.

The selection of Catesby Woodford as president of the Kentucky Association was a happy choice, and under his leadership improvement in the sport at the oldest racing ground in the United States may be expected. Mr. Woodford is one of the most substantial citizens of Bourbon County and is a member of one of the oldest families in the Blue Grass region. He is a born turfman and since his young manhood has devoted his land and his talents to the production of thoroughbred horses. He is the proprietor of Raceland Stud and Farm, near Paris, and is the business partner of his kinsman, Col. E. F. Clay, chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, who is likewise owner of the Runnymed Stud and Farm, also near Paris. In addition to being a header Mr. Woodford annually races a number of the horses were en route from here to Juarez December 17, and at Frankfort the car took fire and the horses were e

M'INTYRE RIDES WELL AFTER SUSPENSION.

San Francisco, Cal., January 7.—Jockey J. McIntyre, recently restored to good standing by the Kentucky State Racing Commission, resumed riding at Oakland today and carried off the riding honors by landing three winners. All of them were favorites, McIntyre rode Arionette, favorite for the featur erace, but she evidently has had too much racing, as she weakened after running in front, and Pride of Lismore won from Daddy Gip and Fernando. Oakland took another purse, with Vanir second, as trainer White advanced his price from $1,200 to $1,400, and C. P. Lamar let him go.

Melton Street, a 40 to 1 chance, proved the surprise of the day. The Mackenzie colt was starting for the first time here and won handlly.

The anti-betting bill introduced simultaneously in both branches of the legislature by Senator Walker and Assemblyman Young, are of the most drastic nature and are designed to put a stop to betting of all kinds. Imprisonment from thirty days to a year is the penalty with alternative fine. The bill amends the penal code so as to cover six classes of persons —dirst, whoever engages in poolselling or bookmaking with or without writing; second, whoever keeps or occupies any room, vessel, place or enclosure of any kind with a book or books, apparatus or paraphernatia for recording any betting or for selling pools; third, whoever receives, holds or forwards any money or consideration of value that is staked, pledged, waggred or is to be staked, etc., or is offered for that purpose; fourth, whoever records or registers any bets; fifth, the owner, lessee or occupant of any place or vessel, who permits it to be used for the purpose prohibited by the bill; sixth, whoever lays, makes, offers or accepts any bet.

Aristotle, an old cripple owned by Barney Schreiber, broke down so badly in a recent work-out that it became necessary to destroy him.

Oakland is almost a ringer for his half-brother, Frank Ruhstaller.

H. G. Bedwell has decided to throw his horses out of training for the present and has arranged to turn them out at the Oakwood Stock Ranch at Lincoln, Placer County. This is the Lawrence & Comstock ranch, where Minnedocia, Prestolite., Buckthorn, Rey Hindoo, La Reine Hindoo and other good ones were bred. Mr. Bedwell has not abandoned the hope that the Kentucky State Racing Commission will yet permit him to sell his horses before they become useless from old age.

TAMPA'S FEATURE RACE A FIZZLE.

Tampa, Fia., January 7.—Unfavorable conditions brought a big slump in attendance today. Drizzling rain fell throughout the afternoon and was accompanied by penetrating cold. The feature race was a farcical affair, three of the five starters coming to grief. Jack Baker and Dr. Heard finished first and second respectively and were the only ones to go the course without mishap. Miblick was given third money. He fell, but was remounted. Octopus, after coming to grief at the third hurdle, was remounted, but again fell at the last fence. He was then remounted by G. Wilson and finished far in advance of Niblick, but a shortage of twenty pounds resulted in his failure to get any portion of the purse. Totten, his original rider, sustained a bad fracture of the collarbone and severe bruises.

Catherine Hampson showed a meritorious performance in the opener by leading home four other two-year-olds, including Orlando Lady, a previous winner. Speculation was again light and the outcome favored the public.

A. B. SPRECKELS IS UNDAUNTED.

San Francisco, Cal., January 7.—A. B. Spreckels is going ahead with extensive plans for the coming season at his large breeding establishment at Napa, Although most California breeders quit and sold out when adverse legislation came. Mr. Spreckels went right ahead with raising thoroughbreds on a larger scale than before. He has a place for breeding thoroughbreds at Napa, which manager George Berry boasts is second to none in the country. It covers a large area of ground, with many fine buildings, a training track and general modern equipment of the highest class. Eighty men are employed on the place the season round, and for climate, feed, water and other natural advantages the Spreckels establishment is hard to equal.

Mr. Spreckels takes great pride in his farm, too, and devotes a lot of personal attention to the work going on. He takes great pleasure in raising horses. He is himself a student of pedigrees and decides how his mares are to be mated.

There are five stallions and eighty mares at the Napa Stock Farm this season, and manager Berry expects to produce thirty-eight racers this year. The sires are all well known, including Dr. Leggo, Purycar D., Solitaire H., Big Chief and Voornees. Mr. Spreckels has confidence that racing will be restored to its former standing, and is going to continue his Napa Stock Farm along ambitious lines.

ANOTHER ABE FRANK JUVENILE WINS,

El Paso, Tex., January 7.—Springlike weather at the running of the Chapultepec Selling Stakes attracted a good attendance to Terrazas Park today. Large fields were the order of the day and the talent found it difficult to pick winners. In the feature race of the day Meadow, from the stable of W. McLemore, easily disposed of her opposition, the pace being ridiculously slow, which was to her liking. The daily two-year-old race resulted in another victory for a Texas-bred filly and added another score to the credit of the Texas stallion. Abe Frank, which thus far has sired the winners of three of the four races run for horses of that age, besides furnishing several of the placed contenders.

At the conclusion of the fifth and sixth races the winners were bid up by J. Pinkstaff, who ran up Ellerd to $700 and Gilpy to $890. Both horses were retained by their respective owners.

W. McLemore arrived today and had the pleasure of seeing his good race mare, Meadow, win the principal event of the day.

The Slicker bled when running prominently in the second race.

for the Juarez and Kentucky Derbys.

VANDERBILT'S GREAT STABLE IN FRANCE.

One of the anomolous features of recent racing is that an American, who never took more than a perfunctory interest in the sport in his native land, has founded a great stable and breeding stud in France and become the leading turfinan of that country. W. K. Vanderbilt is that American and bis success in French racing has been nothing short of phenomenal. The truth of the axiom that money makes money is continually exemplified on the French turf, and it has been by the expenditure of large sums that the American sportsman has attained such a remarkable position in a foreign country. Nevertheless, wealth alone would not have produced such gratifying results; the money had to be laid out with judgment and discretion, and the namagement of the vast enterprise had to be entrusted to capable and experienced hands. Mr. Vanderbilt is fortunate in having the services of William Duke as his private trainer at St. Louis-depoissy, and the jockey attached to the stable is Frank O'Neill, undoubtedly one of the most efficient horsemen riding af the present time.

Duke will have this year about sixty horses under his charge, about half of this number being now yearlings, sent up from the Haras de Villebon. It will be seen, therefore, that he will be particularly strong in two year olds. The peculiar feature about

Mr. Vanderbilt's large winnings is the fact that no one horse contributed disproportionately to the stable's total. Neither Nuage nor Marsa, the leading colt and filly of the senson, were his, and he did not win either the Grand Prix or the French Derby. Mr. Vanderbilt's horse that won most money was the four-year-old Oversight, now retired from the turf, and gone to join Maintenon and Prestige at the Villebon Stud. His best three-year-old was Reinhart, but he only won $30,000. Sea Sick's prize only totaled up to $27,700, and this horse has also finished his turf career. He will stand next season at the Haras de Marly-la-Ville, where his fee will be $500. He has been leased to the Vicomte d'Harcourt, but Mr. Vanderbilt is to have his services for a certain number of mares.

The following is a list of the horses that William Duke will have in his charge next season:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The horses of M. A. Veil-Picard, the leading owner of steeplechasers in France, have earned $267,500 in the last two seasons.

Mr. Fairie's Bayardo has been sent to the stud and it is already announced that his book is full for 1911 at a fee of $1,505.

F. T. Wood owns two brothers to Frank Mullens, one a two-year-old and the other a yearling. The 1911 two-year-old he has had gelded, but the year-ling is a colt.

Fred Taral has arranged to train for Herr A. von Pechy in Austria-Hungary. Taral was formerly first jockey for Herr von Pechy and won the German Derby for him in 1902 on Macdonald, son of Chislehursf.

Jerry Edwards died at the General Hospital at Toronto, Ont., on Monday last. He was well known among race followers as a valet for jockey Jimmy Walsh and G. Corder. He o'riginally came from Brooklyn, N. Y. He was buried at Mount Hope Cemetery at Toronto.

The running Futurity of the Winnepeg Industrial Exhibition for foals of 1910 received sixteen entries. This event was open only to horses foaled west of the great lakes. Howard S. Kelston, Rainbow, Gold-crest and Cyclades are among the thoroughbred sires represented, and Mr. Dale has nominated a half-brother to his Epsom Derby candidate, Kel d'or, by Macco. The Speed Committee has decided to open a Futurity for foals of 1911 similar to those offered the past two years.

Went to post at 3:51. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same.

ALL RED ran in nearest pursuit from the start and, after losing ground in the stretch, came again in the last furlong and got up to win in the closing strides. FULFORD showed the most speed and set a fast pace until well into the homestretch, but tired badly when it came to the deciding drive. COLONEL ASH-MEADE finished with a rush. The going was against HUCK, but he ran well to the stretch. BREVITE showed speed. BOB CO. ran poorly.

Went to post at 4:14. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. MY GAL trailed far back for three-quarters, then moved up rapidly and, wearing the leader down in the homestretch, outgamed him in the final drive. ARDRI left the post with a rush and showed much the most speed until in the last furlong, then tired under punishment. ARONDACK ran well, but tired after making a game and threatening effort after entering the homestretch. PRINCELIKE finished gamely and close up. ST. I have a brother who is riding at Moncrief Park, also a personal friend who is a jockey. All wires sent out by me will be ridden by one of these boys. I will be in Milwaukee for a few weeks and will send wires from there. I will return to Jacksonville shortly and will then send all wires from track. All I ask is that you bet $10.00 for me.
